IT'S HAPPENING HERE' MEMBER OF DIES BODY SAYS

Congressman N. Mason is Speaker at American-ism Day Program

"The State of the Nation" was the subject of the Americanization Day-Lincoln Birthday address delivered by Congressman Noah Mason, and member of the Dies committee last evening at the Dixon Elks club house. The event was attended by members of many fraternal and patriotic organizations of the city and several were present from other communities.

Congressman Mason, a student of the Dixon college and school teacher in Lee county about 40 years ago, referred to a remark made by Abraham Lincoln in the Illinois legislature on Jan. 27, 1837, concerning "the dangers from within this government."

"This nation has passed through three major national crises. The first of these was the Revolutionary war; the second, the Civil war; and the third, the World war."

"Today, we face a fourth crisis, another world war and we face it woefully unprepared as we were in the last world war. During the last ten years we have seen an undermining and destruction of the morals of millions of our people who are today looking to the government for support instead of support to the government. They have become afflicted with a disease known as the 'gimmies'. No nation can live without the stamina to stand up and take it."

Industry Hamstrung
"Under the guise of social experiments we have seen industry, to which we look for the badly needed items for defense, hamstrung from Washington."

"We have sat by and listened to the words, 'It can't happen here,' until we believe it. As the result of revelations which I have heard during the last three years as a member of the Dies committee, let me leave you with this message: 'It is happening here,' the same as it did in France and Norway and today in Bulgaria. And what are we Americans doing about it?"

"The American people have decided that this European affair is not our kettle of fish, that it does not affect us and is none of our business. Yet the back door of Japan is today our real danger. Prejudices are being developed through the expenditure of huge sums of money which is coming direct from Moscow and Berlin to the United States for this sole purpose. It is our affair; it is our kettle of fish and something should and must be done about it."

"I want to give you some idea of the Dies investigating committee. In the first place its chairman, Martin H. Dies is a two-fisted, red-blooded, six-foot-two American, a Jeffersonian Democrat from Texas. When this committee was named the first year we received the sum of $2,500 with which to carry on our investigations, the smallest sum ever appropriated for a committee's use. Obstacles were purposely placed in the path of the committee and they tried to ridicule us out of existence. We were promised the co-operation of many federal agencies in Washington, but this assistance never came. In that first year we did but one thing—we succeeded in convincing the American public that subversive influences were at work and that something should be done about it."

"In the second year, we really began to function and investigate, and from all sections of the country came the urges to continue the Dies committee. The third year we uncovered the fact that practically every German consulate in America was a clearing house for Nazi propaganda, with utter disregard to treaties. It could have meant the recalling of these consuls, but that was not done. It did put a stop on the propaganda efforts, but nothing has been done about it. It is at least known what has been going on and this was accomplished without the co-operation from any federal department. Today, the justice department and the F. B. I. are indicting and convicting many of the leaders whom the Dies committee uncovered and exposed, and both departments have had no records in their possession for several years."

Class Hatred Engendered
"We were told that individuals in high public positions had engendered class hatred which formed an excellent seed bed in which Communist organizers worked. Just refer back to speeches made by Ickes, Hopkins, Jackson and others in high places. There names were called to induce hatred."

"We learned that high government officials encouraged communist activities in this country, and the records of this investigation proved it. Witnesses referred to the Bridges case in

Going Up

Washington, Feb. 13—(AP)—The federal debt climbed past $46,000,000,000 today while congress considered raising its legal ceiling. The treasury said its obligations totaled $46,003,095,498, or within $3,000,000,000 of the present limit. The house has passed and a senate committee is considering now a proposal to increase the limit, however, a $65,000,000,000.

The debt has risen $3,035,564,460 in the last seven months, and is scheduled to rise faster as the defense program speeds up.

Philip Raymond's Estate $30,000, His Will States

The will of D. Philip Raymond, filed in the Lee county court today, gives to his widow, Mrs. Lola M. Raymond, and to his aunt, Agnes C. Raymond, the use of all of his property during their lives with full power to dispose of a part or all of the estate. After their death the executor is directed to distribute the estate as follows: To the trustees of the First Presbyterian church of Dixon, $1,000; Ross C. Drew, Dixon, $700; Paul J. Frederick, Dixon, $500; Harry G. Stewart and Harry S. Stewart, Dixon, $350 each; Herbert W. Morris, Dixon, $500; Lawrence C. Albright, Dixon, $400; trustees of Knox college, Galesburg, $500; and Illinois State Elks Association Crippled Children's commission, $100.

Other Bequests
Subject to the foregoing cash bequests and to the life estates in favor of Lola M. Raymond and Agnes C. Raymond, the remainder of the estate is to be divided as follows: To Dr. Marcia L. Young and Florence R. Baldwin, each a 1/7th part; to Raymond M. Baldwin, Marion L. Baldwin, Howard E. Baldwin, Bernice B. Allen, Hazel B. Purnell and Lucille B. Hilbish, cousins of Mr. Raymond, and Emma M. Chapman, Bernice M. Warren, Frank E. McMillen and Carl A. McKillen, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Raymond, each a 1/14th part. Donald B. Raymond is appointed executor and Morey C. Pires his successor. The petition recites that Mr. Raymond was the owner of personal property worth $18,000 and real estate worth $12,000. The business will be continued as in the past under the management of Mrs. Raymond and Lawrence Albright.

Big Steel Mill Down Result of CIO Strike

Youngstown, O., Feb. 13—(AP)—Eleven open hearth furnaces at the Brier Hill plant of Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., which has been turning out from 3,000 to 4,000 tons of steel a day, were idle today as a result of a CIO-steel workers' walkout.

Officials of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee said the walkout resulted last night from grievances involving "seniority and other problems" which, they said, had been pending nearly four months.

The Youngstown Metal Products Co., a Sheet & Tube subsidiary at the Brier Hill plant, also was closed as the result of a strike called yesterday.

Zulus' Mardi Gras Jamboree Will Quadruple Anything White Folks Do

New Orleans, Feb. 13—(AP)—Ex-kings of the Zulu Social Aid & Pleasure Club today let the news be pried out of them that the organization's Mardi Gras jamboree will quadruple—and then some—anything attempted by the white folks.

As a supreme nostalgic salute to Africa the Zulus, composed of Negro porters, longshoremen and chauffeurs, will make the theme of their parade on fat Tuesday, February 25, the return of Haile Selassie, conquering Lion of Judah.

"And for the first time in our 30 years of parading," said Financial Secretary Joseph Fisher, "we have passed a resolution that none of the boys get tight. If a man can't stay on the wagon for 8 hours of marching around he don't need to belong to the club."

SENATE DEBATE ON BRITISH AID TO BEGIN MONDAY

Committee Votes Its Approval of Measure During Morning

Washington, Feb. 13—(AP)—The senate foreign relations committee approved today, 15 to 8, the administration's aid-to-Britain bill.

The legislation was approved in substantially the form voted by the house. It now goes to the senate floor for debate, which will start Monday and which leaders hope to restrict to two weeks.

The committee acted after rejecting a proposal by Senators Johnson (R-Calif.) and Ellender (D-La.) to restrict the president's authority to send American armed forces out of the western hemisphere.

Ellender told reporters when he came out of the closed committee session that the group had voted 13 to 9 against a proposed amendment which would have stated that nothing in the act would give the president any authority, beyond what he already had, to send men of the army and navy to points outside this hemisphere or American possessions.

Previously, committee members said two administration amendments to the bill had been adopted as a final vote was approached on the revised legislation.

One would require the president to obtain authorization from congress before he could contract for future delivery of war materials to be turned over to other nations.

This amendment—a surprise concession—would make it necessary for the president to obtain both authorizations and appropriations from congress before he could place any future contracts for war materials under the program.

Inasmuch as the bill's language already authorizes the president to direct the manufacture and transfer of supplies, the amendment apparently would have the effect of making that general overall authorization subject to specific authorizations and appropriations on contracts to be placed in the future.

The purpose of the provision was to meet objections that the bill gave the president a "blank check" for unlimited spending. It failed, however, to budge the stand-pat opponents.

The other would provide that money received in payment of transferred materials should go into the treasury's general fund after July 1, 1946.

The committee rejected also an amendment proposed by Senator McNary (R-Ore.) which would have stated specifically that any ships transferred to foreign countries must be returned.

Aid Not Limited
No amendment was put forward in the committee on Wendell L. Willkie's suggestion that aid under the legislation be limited to Britain, China and Greece.

The British aid bill would permit the president to transfer, lease or lend war materials to nations whose defense the president considers vital to the security of the United States. Transfers of existing equipment would be limited to $1,300,000,000 and could be made by the president only after consultation with army and navy chiefs.

Young Hero

Burlington, Vt., Feb. 13—(AP)—An 11-year-old boy who rescued four children but failed in a try to save another when ice broke under them on Lake Champlain relates that he "skated around" afterward to dry his clothes so his family wouldn't be alarmed when he went home.

The boy, Roland Boucher, and another youth, Curtis Maguire, 13, were pushing four other children in two sleds when the ice gave way yesterday, dropping all but Boucher into the water.

Using his jacket as a life-line, Boucher told reporters, he pulled out Margaret Maguire, 11; Charles St. Jacques, 9, and June Rock, 11. Then he crawled to the edge of the ice and plunged his head and arms under the water to grab Curtis, who was too weak to grasp the jacket.

Kenneth Maguire, 8, brother of two of the rescued and one of ten children of a widowed mother, drowned. His body was recovered. The rescued children were reported recovering.

GOP SPLIT OVER AID-TO-BRITAIN ACT PROVISIONS

Divergent Views Given in Talks at Lincoln Day Gatherings

(By The Associated Press)

Sharp differences of opinion on the mechanics of American aid to Britain arose in the speeches of Wendell L. Willkie and other Republican orators at Lincoln Day banquets over the nation last night.

Willkie's appeal for prompt American assistance for the embattled British did not set the keynote for all the other speakers. Some of them had sharp criticism for terms of the pending lend-lease bill, which Willkie previously had endorsed with modifications.

The 1940 presidential nominee called on Republicans to seize "a golden opportunity" and take the lead in furnishing American equipment to "the fighting men of Britain."

He declared that death awaits the party if it finds "nothing noble to do than compromise" now "in one of the critical moments of history."

While Willkie spoke in New York before the National Republican Club last night, other Lincoln Day banquets were being held in every state and the District of Columbia.

Senator Nye (R-ND) told a Philadelphia audience that Willkie's support of the legislation represented a "betrayal" and declared that "if Mr. Willkie has not destroyed the two-party system in this country, he has at least contributed largely to its destruction."

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), another opponent of the lend-lease measure, asserted that Willkie "does not and cannot speak for the Republican party." He spoke at Harrisonburg, Va.

But support for the legislation came from Thomas E. Dewey, New York District Attorney, who like Taft, was an unsuccessful contender for last year's Republican presidential nomination.

For "Further Reservations"
Dewey told a Washington, D. C., audience that he favored the bill, with some "necessary further reservations."

Willkie, in his first speech since returning from a flying trip to the British Isles, denied that "the democratic way of life" could perish in Britain and Europe and survive in the United States.

While Willkie called for co-operation with the administration's aid-to-Britain program, he voiced bitter criticism of its domestic policies.

He charged that "the New Deal party" seeks to win elections by "government pressures and expenditures" and declared it "does not understand the basic functioning of the free enterprise system."

Representative Fish (R-NY), who led the fight in the House against the lend-lease bill, charged at a Baltimore party rally that Willkie "is now beating the war drums more furiously than the interventionists and war-makers of the Democratic party."

Declaring he was "astonished" by Willkie's proposal to transfer more American destroyers to Britain, Fish said: "If Mr. Willkie had proclaimed any such views in the presidential campaign, he would not have carried a single state."

"Pretty Close to Treason"
Fish departed from his prepared text at one point to say that Willkie's testimony before the Senate foreign relations committee this week came "pretty close to being treason to America."

Several of his hearers walked out and Fish, asserting that he wanted "the American people and the gentlemen who walked from the room to know the truth" about McLeansboro, Ill., Feb. 13—(AP)—A couple of restaurant proprietors in this oil boom town insist this is true. An oil well driller—known as a "roughneck"—to the oil gentry—ordered a meal in a cafe, asked for ketchup but none was available.

He put his plates on a tray and carried his dinner to a second restaurant where he was provided with ketchup. Then he ran out of bread and butter and after he telephoned the first restaurant, it was promptly furnished.

When he had finished the meal, he took the dishes back to the first restaurant, paid his check.

Lanark Man Held in Death of Boy in State's School

S. Charles, Ill., Feb. 13—(AP)—James Williams, 16, a Chicago negro inmate of the state training school for boys near here, died in the school hospital today from injuries suffered last night in what Managing Officer W. T. Harmon said was a fight.

Held without charge by Kane county Sheriff Marcus W. Damisch, pending investigation, was Robert Adams, 32, of Lanark, Ill., house father of the institution's disciplinary cottage.

Col. Harmon, Sheriff Damisch and State's Attorney Charles G. Seidel pieced together his story of the fight and events leading up to it.

Williams was sent to the disciplinary cottage for attempting to get some marking ink from the laundry without permission. Ordered to scrub the basement last night, he refused. A fight ensued. Col. Harmon said Adams told him he had struck the youth with his fist about 7 p. m. The youth died at 5 a. m.

Sheriff Damisch said a piece of rubber hose with blood on the attached nozzle had been found at the scene of the fight.

School and Kane county officials were questioning Adams and others in the cottage at the time.

Cuban Precautions

Havana, Feb. 13—(AP)—The Cuban cabinet announced early today as series of measures described as aimed against "totalitarian activities" in following out the decree for the defense of democracy signed Jan. 29 by President Fulgencio Batista.

The measure include: A ban on the use of Italian, German, Spanish or Soviet Russian flags or emblems except by diplomats.

Prohibition of talking or writing about the United States or any other democracy with disrespect. Orders to authorities to halt any political meeting where "any kind of totalitarian propaganda" is involved, and to close the mails, telegraphs and radio to such propaganda.

Memorial Service

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13—(AP)—Memorial services honoring the late Justice Norman L. Jones of Carrollton were held today before the Illinois Supreme Court.

The former chief justice, who was 71 years old when he died last November, was eulogized as a leader of the Illinois judiciary by former Justice Warren H. Orr of Chicago, Dean Albert J. Harbo of the University of Illinois law school and Gilbert K. Hutchens, Chicago attorney.

DEFENSE MEASURE

Ottawa, Feb. 13—(AP)—Air Minister C. G. Power announced today that a system of airports throughout Alberta and British Columbia leading to Alaska, was being established by the Canadian government at a cost of $9,000,000. This undertaking is a defense measure, the minister said.

Cousins of Accident Victim Injured in Crash Enroute to His Last Rites

Two nieces of Marshall Parker of Amboy, who was killed when his car was struck by a truck driven by Robert Thorgren of Coleta on U. S. route 30 Tuesday morning, were injured in an auto accident late Tuesday night while en route from Roodhouse to Amboy to attend Parker's funeral. They were Phyllis Albright, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Albright of Quincy, and Betty Lou Gonterman, 17, of Roodhouse.

They were riding in a car driven by Marshall Parker, Sr., father of the Amboy crash victim, of Wadsworth, Kas. Near Chillicothe, Ill., the automobile hit a snow-bank and overturned three times and snapped off a telephone pole. The Albright girl's left collar bone was broken and Miss Gonterman suffered scalp wounds.

War-bred Tension Felt in Other Side of World: Grave Concern in Sydney

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

Mussolini's conference with Spanish Generalissimo Franco has been shrouded with secrecy but it represents an effort on the part of Il Duce to secure aid of some sort, and may portend further action against Britain in the Mediterranean.

It seems clear, too, that this move is the outgrowth of Italy's perilous position as the result of her disastrous defeats and her serious economic situation due to the British blockade. The Italian debacle has necessitated a quick reconstruction of axis strategy.

Since Spain—wounded and hungry from her own terrible civil war—has nothing to give except friendship and use of some of her territories as bases by the axis, this presumably represents the specific object of Mussolini's appeal. Such help would be repayment for the aid Italy gave Franco in his successful revolt against the Madrid government.

All of this fits in with the subsequent conference today between Franco and French Chief of State Petain. France's vital interest in the developing situation is obvious, but the significant point to my mind is that old Marshal Petain's firm stand against the axis, plus his navy and African forces, has brought his country to the fore again as a figure of importance.

Naturally the first thought that ran through the minds of many people the world over was that the Riviera conferences represented an attempt by Mussolini to secure peace. Franco would be intermediary with England, and Petain's presence would be a necessity.

Some observers abroad stuck to that view today, though it generally was pooh-poohed in the capitals. Still, it wouldn't be surprising if peace were mentioned between the two dictators. We are entitled to say that this idea may represent intelligent anticipation if things don't pick up with Italy soon.

There are several possible moves which the axis might attempt, and one is a squeeze maneuver executed by offensives at both ends of the Mediterranean in an effort to gain control of the Suez canal and the Strait of Gibraltar.

This would involve a German drive to the Dardanelles through the Balkans, and presumably would mean an assault on Britain's "impregnable" Rock of Gibraltar and the important naval base which it mothers. Use of Spanish

'Laddie' is Dead

Monterey, Calif., Feb. 13—(AP)—Ten-year-old Laddie, his canine heart weakened by grief, died today at the Monterey Presidio—four days after the 2,000-mile flight which brought him to his beloved master, a private at Fort Ord.

Dr. R. I. Lovell, veterinarian for the 7th division, said the air-dread's death was due to heart collapse and old age.

Private Everett Scott, whose departure from a Chanute, Kas., farm to serve in the army caused Laddie to begin a self-imposed fast, was on duty when his faithful friends died.

Defense Work Stops

Lansing, Mich., Feb. 13—(AP)—J. E. Garland, vice president in charge of manufacturing for Motor Wheel Corporation, announced today that the morning shift of 800 employees had left their jobs at the corporation's plant No. 2, which is engaged in the manufacture of defense materials.

The walkout occurred while a special mediation commission was endeavoring to settle a dispute between the management and the United Automobile Workers Union-AFL, collective bargaining agency for the plant's employees, over a new contract.

Indications Seen of Pressure Applied to Yugoslavia

BULLETIN

Washington, Feb. 13—(AP)—Concern was evidenced in some diplomatic quarters today over the possibility that Japan was preparing for a lightning thrust in the Far East against British on Netherlands possessions.

Secretary of State Hull told reporters he had no late advices from American diplomats in that area but he confirmed that renewed notice had been given to Americans in some section of the Far East to return to the United States.

In other diplomatic quarters, it was learned that reports of a disturbing nature concerning possible Japanese plans for moves in the South Pacific had been received.

These coincided with an Australian government statement that "the war has moved into a new stage involving the utmost gravity."

United States officials would not venture a guess on what moves Japan might be planning.

By The Associated Press

The premier and foreign minister of Yugoslavia were reported today to have reached Germany by plane for a conference tonight with Adolf Hitler—completing, presumably, the pattern of axis power politics which spells peril for Britain at both ends of the Mediterranean.

As the Balkans diplomats were reported at Munich, Generalissimo Francisco Franco of Spain was taking leave of the French Chief of State, Marshal Petain, after two days of talks in which he also had an Italian audience with Benito Mussolini.

An alarming state of tension seized the other side of the world, sending a Dutch ship unexpectedly back to Manila, bringing grave expression of official concern at Sydney, Australia, and causing renewed official advice to Americans in China, Indo-China and the Japanese empire to go home.

Pressure Suggested
The Yugoslav premier, Dragisa Cvetkovik and the foreign minister, Aleksander Cincar-Markovic, hurried to the reich under circumstances suggesting that Hitler may be planning pressure on their Balkan country for the passage of German troops southward.

Political quarters in Belgrade said the Yugoslav leader had been invited to discuss "the present political situation in the Balkans," as well as Yugoslavia's adhesion to the axis three-power pact.

Germany is reported to have 600,000 soldiers massed in Rumania for a swift thrust into south-east Europe—either at Greece or Turkey.

Russia declared a month ago that if German troops were entering Bulgaria, it was done without either her consent or knowledge.

A few hours later, Australia's Deputy Prime Minister A. W. Fadden declared that the war had reached a new stage of the utmost gravity to Australia and that "grave advices" had been received regarding the situation in the Pacific.

Claim 13 Ships Sunk
Hitler's high command reported today that German warships in the Atlantic sank 13 armed British merchant ships loaded with war supplies, and other Nazi sources called it "probably the most successful attack on a convoy in naval history."

It was indicated that at least some of the ships were of 20,000 tons or more.

The Nazi high command also reported that destructive aerial blows against the Suez canal had caused "severe paralysis" of ship traffic there.

A Nazi spokesman commenting on the wholesale sinking of Britain's sea-borne commerce declared the world now was witnessing the first large scale development of tactics combining warships, U-boats and scouting planes for attacks far out at sea.

Danger signals rocketed over the Far East anew as United States embassies and consulates "urgently" advised American citizens in China, Indo-China and the Japanese empire to return to the Vernie Durin has been under the doctor's care since Thursday and is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith of near Steward visited in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith spent Tuesday visiting in Chicago.

NOW "PRAIRIE STATE"

New York (AP)—Captain J. J. London, commanding officer, said that the U. S. S. Illinois, naval reserve midshipman's training ship, has been renamed the U. S. S. Prairie State. The name Illinois was selected recently for a new battleship.

LITTLE GRAVITY PULL

If we lived on one of the tiny moons of the planet Mars, there would be so little gravity pull that we would be able to jump 1000 feet into the air.

Smokers know... Chesterfields Satisfy

WITH THEIR Milder BETTER TASTE

Do you know why Chesterfield gives you more pleasure? Because it's the smoker's cigarette... it has everything a smoker wants... Real Mildness and a Cooler, Better Taste.

Chesterfields are better-tasting and mild... not flat... not strong, because of their right combination of the world's best cigarette tobaccos. You can't buy a better cigarette.

Valentine Greetings from ELLEN DREW, starring in the current Paramount hit "THE MAD DOCTOR"... and from CHESTERFIELD, the Milder, Cooler, Better-Tasting cigarette.

They're Milder. Before auction time Chesterfield's expert tobacco buyers look over the growing crops so they will know firsthand where the finest mild, ripe leaf is coming from. The way these tobaccos are conditioned, aged and blended gives Chesterfields a better taste and makes them definitely milder.

Do you smoke the cigarette that Satisfies... it's the smoker's cigarette

State Health Report

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13—(AP)—The measles epidemic in Illinois continued to gain last week with a total of 1,831 new cases reported. State Health Director Roland R. Cross said today.

The total measles cases reported now totals 7,343 for the first six weeks of 1941, compared with 198 reported for the similar period last year. Chicago reported 1,273 of the measles cases last week, while Bloomington with 47 led the down-state cities. Influenza, pneumonia and scarlet fever continued to gain. Dr. Cross reported.

To get an ounce of smoke you would have to puff up 16 packages of cigarettes.

Boy Scout Parents Night

Last evening the Boy Scout Troop 76, sponsored by the Presbyterian church held a pot luck supper, with their parents as guests at a meeting in the Presbyterian church parlors. This week is National Boy Scout week, and special importance is being given to the work. Leroy Willard, Field Scout Executive for Lee-Ogle district (who replaces Stan Worrell) was present. He presented the charter to the church board. The program consisted of demonstrations by the boys, Emergency Service work such as First Aid and Rescue; Court of Honor, and entertainment. The Boy Scouts have arranged a display this week in the window of the Maginnis clothing store.

Woman's Club Guest Night

"America and the European War" will be the subject by Harold Bittling of Freeport, when the guest night audience of the Rochelle Woman's club assemblies Thursday evening, Feb. 13.

Miss Esther Boyd of Ashton will play a group of violin selections.

The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church parlors at 8:00 p. m., followed by a social hour.

C. of C. Guest Night

Wives of the members of the Chamber of Commerce will be guests of the association next Thursday evening, Feb. 20, at 6:30 o'clock dinner. The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church parlors.

An entertainment has been planned for the social evening which follows the dinner.

Knitting Club

Mrs. Lewis Pierce of Creston, entertained her knitting club on Monday evening.

Dinner at Twin Gables

Miss Garland Lind, Miss Mabel Oakland, Margaret Coleman, and Mrs. Luke Pentz attended a dinner at Twin Gables, Tuesday evening. All were members of a speech class of Northern Illinois State Teachers College, and the dinner is a final meeting of the group.

Observed Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Krug observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Thursday. Twenty relatives and friends from Ashton, Franklin Grove and Rochelle staged a surprise party in their honor at the Krug home. The occasion was also the fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hooley, grandson and wife of the Krugs.

Come Double Party Postponed

The Come Double class dinner meeting has been postponed until the fourth Thursday of the month, February 27th, at which time Mr. and Mrs. T. Bassler, Mr. and Mrs. Les Vanderpoel, and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Pentz will entertain. The party will be held at the Presbyterian church parlors with the entertainment following the pot luck supper.

TRUST IN TOMORROW

CHAPTER IV
APRIL BURNETT was a great believer in tomorrows.

Perhaps Mother and Dad would return ahead of time from the camping trip and figure a way out of this situation. Maybe Ann would change her mind and come home. That was it, of course. Ann would start thinking about Kent and would leave for Pattonville, audition or not. Anything could happen tomorrow, so really all she had to worry about was tonight.

And tonight, after the long train ride, the fresh memory of what he'd been through, Kent must be spared. That was where the inspiration came in.

For a minute, it struck her as strange that she should be bothering at all. Yet somehow the memory of Kent's unseeing eyes, the thought of how much this weekend leave meant to him, made her pick up the telephone resolutely.

"Hello, Kent—bet you could never guess what sweet young hero worshiper this is."

She was all April now as she held the telephone cupped close to her mouth. Her voice was like Ann's, but the flippant words were hers.

"Why, yes," Kent was saying, "it's April. How are you, April?"

"Never mind about how I am," she crooned. "How is the conquering warrior?"

"Oh, very well, thanks." His words were clipped.

"Why didn't you let us know about your leave ahead of time so we could have brought the band out and thrown a party? It's not every day a man of military affairs comes into our midst."

"I'm hardly that," he made a forced attempt at laughter. April lowered her voice.

"Kent, in all seriousness, Ann wanted me to send word to you."

"Ann—is she all right?"

APRIL held the hand-set a little closer. So far, so good. She mustn't say a thing she couldn't stand by later.

"Ann will be all right," she hastened on, "it's only that she's a little—well, your coming home so sudden and everything—"

Kent was quick to answer. "I know it. It's all my fault. Trying to pull the heroics and not writing her."

"You know how Ann is," April was whispering, as if Ann herself might be overhearing. "She's not very strong."

"She'll be fine tomorrow if she gets a good rest, don't you think?"

The eagerness in his voice made April's fingers curl around the cord.

"Oh, yes. Oh, my, I should say so," she answered. "Everything will be fine tomorrow."

"I guess it won't hurt me any either to slack up tonight. Army routine's pretty tough, you know. You tell Ann it's perfectly all right and I understand. I'll call her the first thing tomorrow."

"Yes, I'll tell her. Any other kind words you want to pass along?"

"Why, yes," Kent spoke very quietly. "Say that she's got to be okay tomorrow. I'm going to kidnap her for the whole day."

"H'm, orders from the top sergeant. If you were here, I suppose I'd salute."

He laughed. "Good night, April, and thanks for calling."

"Wait a minute, Cap'n Carter. Whoa, there!" She knew she should say good night. She knew she would spoil the whole results of her inspiration if she said another word. And yet she couldn't stop herself. The Gitterbug, indeed!

"Yes?" he said it impersonally. "How about me volunteering in Ann's place tonight?"

"Thanks, April," he said, "but that wouldn't do. Good night and good luck."

She needed it. She felt very empty as she went upstairs to dress. Kent had said, "Thanks, but that wouldn't do." What he meant, of course, was that she wouldn't do.

CASA BLANCA, everyone said, was a wonderful night club for a town like Pattonville. A big shell of a place, it had a smooth floor and a good orchestra. Every now and then some of the big-name bands you heard on the radio came here to play a one-night engagement.

Tonight, April decided, Casa Blanca looked like Casa Blank to her. It seemed suddenly too big, too much decorated, a sort of imitation of the real thing. And every dance piece the orchestra played was just in imitation, too, of some other band that played it better.

April wore a new black net dress, with a skirt billowing in yards-and-yards and a bodice cunningly sprinkled with small silver sequins. Out of this froth of swirling black, her yellow head with the upbrushed curls rose like a sunburst.

"What's the trouble, April?" One of the trio of young men escorting her leaned forward. "There's a perfectly good rhumba going to waste and you haven't noticed a single imploring look in our eyes."

"Something got you down?" It was Hal Parks, the nicest of the three; in fact, the nicest man she knew.

For a while, April tried to forget the problem that faced her in the morning. She made herself feel confident that Ann would return. If Ann didn't, surely there'd be some way to sidestep Kent. You could always send notes.

So she danced with the three men in turn; lighted their cigarettes since she didn't smoke; listened as they made love in their bantering way. But through the haze of smoke and the blur of music, Kent's face kept coming before her.

It was Hal who had a way of understanding her better than anyone she'd ever known, who extricated her early and drove her home.

"Feel like talking about what's bothering you?" he asked.

She stammered an answer. "Oh, maybe it's this war business, the men going to training camps. You'll be leaving, too, Hal?"

Hal was handsome, with smooth dark hair and a mustache that gave him a debonair, man-about-town look. He wore a tuxedo with born grace, knew how to do things the right way. And yes, Hal was going places.

"I'd like to be in uniform right now," he was saying. "But I'm in chemical research at the plant on a rush order for the government, so it looks as if I'd be kept there for a while. Is that what was worrying you, April?"

April shook her head, uncertainly.

Hal didn't try to kiss her, but taking her hands said, "Well, whatever it is, April, if the time ever comes when you want to tell me, I'll be around. I feel that way about you."

A month ago, a week ago, even last night, April's heart would have given a skip or two at this. Now she could only nod and say gratefully, "You're a grand guy, Hal."

He helped her out of the car. "Sure I am," he said with vast aplomb. "And remember this, honey, there are other ways of being drafted besides for the army."

The shocking phase of the case to government authorities was the implied confirmation that the OCP or the Russian military intelligence (Krivitsky was in the latter service) is working on the job in this country. Not only that, but it effected its purposes so adroitly within a few blocks of the Capital of the United States.

None of these convincing circumstantial conclusions will be expressed openly by anyone connected with this government. You must prove what you believe, in diplomacy, and even so sometimes you do not mention it. To talk officially would cause international complications and at a moment when this government is pursuing greater purposes through a policy of mild helpfulness to the relentless liquidators of the Kremlin.

Mumps and Measles Reign

St. Valentine's Day will find many a little Rochelle "sweetheart" with swollen jaws, while that manly little fellow has the measles—or vice versa. In any event, it's just no time for Valentine's Day to appear when so many children are absent from school, with the red sign on the house. At this writing (on Tuesday) known figures were not as large as Dame Rumor has it, but exact figures are not available until later. Earlier there were 14 cases of measles and 1 case of mumps. Several children were sent home because of "colds," or because someone at home was known to be ill. Authorities are making every effort to keep the influenza, mumps, and measles from spreading, although this is an epidemic year throughout the state.

VAILE AND O'MALLEY

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Feb. 12.—There was not much doubt in the mind of any government authority here who knows Moscow, that Krivitsky was murdered. Nor has there existed much hope the real nature of the neat job could be exposed. An acknowledged principle of the Stalin regime holds no one can be permitted to be an "ex" secret agent. That regime considers it an essential, unbreakable rule for the maintenance of discipline in the ranks of the secret service. If a single exception were allowed to exist, the hope would always be held out to those in the toils that they too might one day successfully escape. Murder in that mind was not considered a crime of hate, but of necessity.

The standard Russian way of handling such a matter as Krivitsky in a country where murder seldom goes unpunished, is to force the victim to suicide. It could have been done by threatening harm to Krivitsky's wife and child. It could have been accomplished by a Russian agent confronting the recalcitrant in his hotel room here with a gun backed by a persuasive argument. Krivitsky could have been made to understand that his life was gone and that the only way he could buy the safety of his family was by self-destruction.

That some adaptation of this orthodox formula was followed in this instance is implied in Krivitsky's notes. "I want to live so badly, but it is impossible." The repeated professions of his love for his wife and son preclude the possibility that he could voluntarily hurt them so grievously by suicide. This affection was the dominant point of his notes, stressed as if to tell the story of his death in language his pursuers could not interpret the way his wife could.

The only alternative is that Krivitsky was insane, a possibility which is unbelievable to any who knew him. If this sounds fantastic, so are the Russians.

Next on the death list is the author of a book published a few weeks ago. He exposed his experiences in counter-espionage for both the Nazis and Russians. The name signed to the book is a pseudonym, but his identity is known to the Russians as well as our authorities.

The last to fall before Krivitsky in this country is recorded on the public records as a fatal "automobile accident." No publicity attached to that case because only those with access to the deepest files of this government even know he was a former Russian

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS ACIDS

Help 15 Miles of Kidney Tubes Flush Out Poisonous Waste
If you have an excess of acids in your blood, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may be overworked. These tiny filters and tubes are working day and night to help Nature rid your system of excess acids and poisonous waste. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Kidneys may need help the same as bowels. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

UNION OF STATE RELIEF OFFICES URGED BY GREEN

Governor Seeks to Do Away With Overlapping Agencies

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13—(AP)—Governor Dwight H. Green has taken the first step toward co-ordination of four state relief agencies under a single division of public assistance, a move he said would result in "marked economies" in Illinois' $100,000,000-a-year public aid program.
The governor directed a special committee to study a plan under which all state relief functions would be consolidated as part of a broad program of state government reorganization. The chief executive announced yesterday he was considering a similar plan to merge various crime prevention agencies into a new department of public safety.
The Illinois Emergency Relief Commission, the division of old age assistance, and the administration of mothers' pensions and blind pensions, all would be brought under jurisdiction of the proposed public assistance division which Green suggested could be set up within the Department of Welfare.

An indication that the governor hopes to submit both proposals to the legislature for consideration in the current regular session was seen in his announcement that the special five-member investigating committee would meet tomorrow to begin its study of the consolidations.

Brandon Chairman

The same committee will survey the plans for both the public assistance and public safety bureaus. Chairman of the group is Rodney H. Brandon, Director of Welfare.

"Marked economies should result from greater co-ordination in the work of administering the various forms of public assistance," the governor said.
"The state is now spending many millions annually in disbursements for direct relief x x old age assistance, mothers' pensions, care of dependent children and aid to the blind. The administration of each of these activities is handled by a separate organization. This has resulted in duplication of operating expenses and in duplication of assistance extended to many individuals and families."

Direct relief, now administered by township supervisors in downstate counties and by the Chicago relief administration in Chicago, also may be placed on a revised basis under the Green plan.

The governor said he was asking the Brandon committee to study "various methods for the administration of direct relief with the view of making recommendations if it finds a more practical and economical plan than the one now in use in Illinois."

Harvester Co. Beset With More Troubles

Chicago, Feb. 13—(AP)—The strike-beset International Harvester Company was up against new labor troubles today, chief of which was a projected vote to determine whether workers at the firm's huge McCormick works here would lay down their tools.
Already down are two plants—the Chicago tractor works and the unit at Rock Falls, Ill. Moreover a walkout at the Richmond, Ind. factory was threatened for late today unless union demands were met by that time.

The union involved in all the disputes is the C. I. O.'s Farm Equipment Workers Organizing Committee whose demands include elimination of piece work, minimum hourly pay increases, security and compensation for conscripts.

Montana forests produced approximately one-fifth of all the Christmas trees used in the United States during the 1940 season.

It is reported that truck drivers who must cross the Sierra Nevada range in California must shift gears 976 times in a stretch of 130 miles of highway.

It's Happening Here

was eventually turned loose again. "A witness told the committee that hundreds of employees in the labor department and social security department at Washington, many receiving high salaries, were Communists. This was investigated and verified and the report of the committee was called a 'sordid procedure.' But since that report was filed, many of these government job holders have lost their positions.

"Federal funds were being spent generously to advance Communism in the United States. We asked for one example and were referred to the Federal Theater project in New York City. We investigated this report and found that Communist writers were writing Communist plays, which were being produced not only in New York theaters but in the New York schools, all of which was being financed by millions of dollars of public funds—and what are public funds? Your taxes and mine. But the Federal Theater project has stopped.

"Hell on Earth"
"Communism as I view it, is hell on earth. Its ideals are attractive, especially to youth. Communism like any other germ or pest, must be brought out into the sun light of Americanism, and that is the purpose of the Dies committee.

"Let us get rid of the fertile soil for the cultivation of Communism. Class hatred and prejudice have no place in the American soil and that is your job. The American people have been asleep on the job. True, the Dies committee has made mistakes, but the American people have neglected to give attention to the only crop we need, and that is Americanism. There is no room for any other ism in these United States. Harry Bridges is John L. Lewis' right hand man on the west coast. Lewis has been protecting him through a special drag with the secretary Bridges should be deported and will be deported.

"Thank God for the American Legion, who for years has cried out for preparedness but their cries were unheeded and unheard. The Knights of Columbus, the Elks and other organizations have done much to advance Americanism and may others join them until the people of the United States stand squarely for this principle of life and existence".

Exalted Ruler M. M. Memler presided as toastmaster during the program which followed a roast turkey dinner served by the ladies of the Elks Auxiliary and the house committee. An excellent program preceded the address by Congressman Mason. The invocation was pronounced by Dr. Floyd Blewfield, pastor of the First Methodist church and after the dinner, all sang one verse of "God Bless America". Miss Carolyn Bergstedt accompanying at the piano. Mayor William V. Slothower welcomed the visitors and a selection by a quartet composed of Miss Carolyn Bergstedt, Mrs. Maurice Rosbrook, Fridolf Lundholm and Sumner Wilson, accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Chapman, was enjoyed. The toastmaster then presented the heads of the various patriotic and fraternal organizations present.

Winston Atkins, talented marimba player, responded to several encores and was accompanied by Miss Marilee Burns, Captain Dan Branigan spoke briefly for the R. O. T. C. Commander Clyde Lenox of Dixon post, No. 12 American Legion, briefly outlined the national Legion Americanization and preparedness program. Otto J. Ellingen of Mendota, district deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of Elks of the northwest Illinois district, was presented and Past Grand Exalted Ruler H. C. Warner of the Elks, who was the originator of the Americanism program in Elks lodges throughout the United States. Senator George C. Dixon, who served in the Illinois senate with the guest speaker, presented Congressman Mason. At the conclusion of his interesting address, Mason answered several questions which pertained to subversive activities.

Circle Women Plan Mid-Winter Picnic

The mid-winter picnic of Prairieville Social circle has been announced for Wednesday evening, Feb. 26, at the church. Friends of the circle members and their neighbors are invited to attend.

Plans for the picnic were discussed at an all-day meeting of the circle yesterday at the church. A scramble luncheon was followed by a business meeting conducted by the new president, Mrs. Edgar Deets.

Committee chairmen appointed by Mrs. Deets included: Tables, Mrs. William Castle; sewing, Mrs. Theodore Behrends; program, Mrs. George Wechsler; flowers, Mrs. Fred Brauer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lawrence Lefevre; and Mrs. Vernon Rhodes of Sterling.

In behalf of the circle women, Mrs. Walter Brauer, the retiring secretary, presented a gift to Mrs. Theodore Behrends, the retiring president. Twenty-three members and two guests were present.

Quilt blocks provided needlework, following the business session.

SCRAMBLE SUPPER
Birthdays of Mrs. Harold Thompson and Kenneth Potts, eldest and youngest of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Potts, were celebrated last evening with a scramble supper at the Thompson home. Tables were arranged for card games, following the supper.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson and Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Potts of Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ditsch, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Ditsch and son, Miss Elaine Steel, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fane and sons of Amboy.

RECITAL PROGRAM TO BE PRESENTED BY CHICAGO PIANIST IS ANNOUNCED

Today, members of the Dixon Music club were announcing the program that Willis Charkovsky, brilliant young Chicago pianist, will present under their sponsorship Sunday afternoon in the Loveland Community House auditorium. And through the courtesy of the club, all interested music-lovers are invited to share the pleasure which the concert is certain to bring.

Sunday's recital is scheduled for 4 o'clock, and is to be a Liszt, Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy and Ravel program, including the following numbers:

- | | | |
|---------------------------------------|--|-----------|
| I | (a)—Fantasie and Fugue on B. A. C. H. | Liszt |
| | (b)—Sonata, E Flat Major, op. 81 | Beethoven |
| | adagio—allegro | |
| | andante espressivo | |
| | vivace | |
| (c)—Ballad, A Flat Major, op. 47 | Chopin | |
| Nocturne, D Flat Major | Chopin | |
| Etude, op. 25, No. 12 | Chopin | |
| Etude, op. 10, No. 8 | Chopin | |
| Etude, op. 25, No. 11 | Chopin | |
| II | (d)—Goldfish | Debussy |
| Minuet | Ravel | |
| Toccata | Ravel | |
| (e)—Forest Murmurs | Liszt | |
| Dance of the Gnomes | Liszt | |
| Rhapsodie, No. 6 | Liszt | |

Since the concert is not a benefit, and only a nominal admission will be charged to meet the expense of bringing the artist to Dixon, the club members have been granted the privilege of selling tickets at the door Sunday afternoon.

ELKS SUPPER IS POSTPONED

The scramble supper which Dixon Elks and their ladies had planned for Tuesday evening at the Elks clubhouse has been postponed, because of conflicting events. A new date probably will be scheduled in March.

Patriotic Orders Honor Lincoln

About 30 women of the city's patriotic orders made a pilgrimage to Lincoln's monument on Lincoln Statue Drive yesterday morning to commemorate the Civil War President's birthday anniversary with a special program. Members of the Dixon Woman's Relief corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., and Daughters of Union Veterans participated.

Carrying American flags, the procession marched across the new Abraham Lincoln bridge to the monument, where Mrs. Mabel Ortiguesen, president of the Woman's Relief corps opened the services with a paper commemorating the memory of Lincoln.

Wreaths were placed by Mrs. Marie Hettler, president of Dixon circle, and Mrs. Neva Messenger, head of Anna Kellogg Baker tent, and Mrs. Mabel Dial of the Woman's Relief corps placed a flag at the foot of the statue. Prayer by Mrs. Laura Stauffer, and the song, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," concluded the program.

The line of march back to the G. A. R. hall was by way of the Peoria Avenue bridge.

SOUTH DIXON UNIT HAS LUNCHEON

Valentines were matched for luncheon partners, and the Valentine motif was used in table appointments, when Mrs. Charles Hank entertained members of the South Dixon Home Bureau unit Tuesday. Luncheon covers were arranged for 15 members and guests.

Mrs. Bernard Hoelscher assisted Mrs. Hank in serving. With the dessert course came a birthday cake honoring the anniversary of Mrs. Herman Wasmund and Mrs. Reuben Levan.

The meeting was opened with the song, "The Star-Spangled Banner," and roll call responses were on the theme, "What I Would Like on the Home Bureau Program." Miss Marian Symson presented the major lesson, "How One Plans Time." Mrs. Alfred Tourillott read an article, and Mrs. William Fritts entertained with a whistling solo.

Recreation was led by Mrs. Carl Blum.

ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT

The orchestra of St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school will present a concert at 8 o'clock this evening at the church, under sponsorship of the ladies' Aid society. Earl Senneff directs the musicians. The public is invited.

TROUBADETTES ARE TO SING

Members of the Troubadette women's chorus will be presented in concert at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, Feb. 23, at the Dixon Methodist church, under auspices of the Wesleyan society of the church. Mrs. E. M. Goodsell directs the singers, and Mrs. Lyle Prescott is their accompanist.

DIXON WOMEN SEW FOR RELIEF

Eight Dixon women were invited to the home of Mrs. Louis Pitcher, Tuesday afternoon, for the first of a series of sewing meetings to aid the Dixon British War Relief society. Needles and scissors were put to work on layettes for infant refugees in England.

Members of the Chicago society report that shipments are not made from Chicago until they have confirmation from the seaboards that space is available, and they have never yet requested space without securing immediate confirmation.

Shipments have been made as follows: Oct. 19, 162 cases, shipped via S. S. "Northern Prince"; Nov. 19, 127 cases, shipped via S. S. "Logician"; Nov. 28, 52 cases, shipped via S. S. "Collegian"; Dec. 4, 79 cases, shipped via S. S. "Yngaren"; Dec. 14, 72 cases, destined for S. S. "Atlantia."

HIGHLAND CLUB

Mrs. Albert Petit and Mrs. Hazel Cashion planned their party in the Valentine manner when they entertained for members of the Highland Avenue club Tuesday evening at the former's home. Bunco prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Jordan, Mrs. John Bennett and Miss Marguerite Stoner. A Valentine box was enjoyed, and refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Sabie Ruggles and Mrs. Glen Shaver are to be the next hostesses.

MOTHER'S CLUB HAS PROGRAM

Mrs. Carl Santee, Mrs. Wallace Ellison and Mrs. O. B. Gerlach were co-hostesses to the Young Mother's club last evening at the Loveland Community House.

Group singing led by Mrs. Kenneth Cook was followed by a panel discussion on "Handwork." Those speaking and their subjects were: "Puppets as a Hobby," Mrs. C. F. Johnston; "Music and Music Appreciation," Mrs. Herbert J. Doran; "Photography," Mrs. Duward Brader; "Sewing and Doll Collecting," Mrs. Jack Sharkey; "Literature," Mrs. Jean McColey.

TO CLEVELAND

Mrs. Elsa Buika left today for her home in Cleveland, Ohio, after spending a few days here with her son-in-law and daughter, the Victor Eichlers.

TO MIAMI

The Isador Eichlers and their daughter, Miss Mae Louise, are vacationing in the south for two or three weeks. They left Monday for Miami.

MRS. H. F. WARE ENTERTAINS FOR W. R. C. STAFF

A miniature log cabin centerpiece and colonial placecards decorated a seasonal party table yesterday, when Mrs. H. F. Ware of 333 Chamberlin street entertained with a dessert-luncheon for co-officers serving on her staff during her presidency of the Dixon Woman's Relief corps the past three years.

Individual cakes, topped with tiny American flags, and gift packages from the hostess marked covers for 26. Both appointments and menu were in keeping with Lincoln's anniversary.

Tables were placed for games, following the dessert course. Mrs. Mabel Ortiguesen, newly-elected president of the corps, was included on Mrs. Ware's guest list.

FORMER POLO TEACHER IS WED

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Margaret Kamlager, former commercial instructor at Polo Community high school, to J. E. Jieske of Barrington, Friday evening, Feb. 7. The nuptial service was solemnized at 6:30 o'clock at the Evangelical church.

After a brief wedding trip through the north, Mr. and Mrs. Jieske will be at home in Barrington.

COMMUNITY SING

Mrs. Ray Herbert is to lead the group singing, and Mrs. Stanley Krahler will be at the piano, for Sunday's Community Sing in the west lounge of the Loveland Community House.

Special numbers will be furnished by a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Wilbur Schreiner, Mrs. Herbert, the Rev. George Nielsen and Ralph Nielson; Miss Geraldine Quinn, trombonist; and Mrs. Kenneth Seiler and Mrs. Herbert, who are to sing a duet.

The program is to open at 3 o'clock, and will be concluded in time for the 4 o'clock recital to be presented in the auditorium by Willis Charkovsky, Chicago pianist.

Only eight of 43 states were able to show reductions in traffic deaths during the first 11 months of 1940.

WHAT'S THE BIG NEWS ABOUT RINSO?

...it's "Anti-Sneeze"!

KERCHOO!

Try the New "Anti-Sneeze" Rinso

Get clothes whiter, brighter—say good-bye to "washday hay-fever", too!

MR. So the new Rinso is "Anti-Sneeze". Is that important, honey?

MRS. I'll say! Those old-type soaps make me sneeze until I'm blue in the face. They're full of sneeze "soap-dust". You know, some soaps contain up to 1/4 lb. of "soap-dust".

MR. No kidding! I never knew that!

MRS. It's a fact! But Rinso is now 98% free of irritating "soap-dust". Another thing, the New Rinso contains a "suds-booster" that makes it go so much farther than the old—it's like getting free soap every 5th washday. Besides, my clothes come a whiter white. Bright, fresh as a daisy, too!

I'M 98% FREE OF SNEEZY "SOAP-DUST"

HI, TOAST! WILL YOU TASTE S-W-E-L-L WHEN I SPREAD ON THAT MARGARINE OF MARGARINES...

WAWOKIYE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Members of the Wawokiye club elected new officers yesterday at in all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. John H. Stanley. A scramble luncheon at noon was attended by ten members and two visitors. Mrs. Edward Stanley and Miss Marie Patterson.

New officers named were: President, Mrs. Julius Hill; vice president, Mrs. George Patterson; secretary, Mrs. Henry Rankin; treasurer, Mrs. Edward Johnson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Stanley, Sr. Mrs. Foster Reese is to serve as chairman of the flower committee, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Hoban and Mrs. Maurice Laursen.

Delilah Laidig, a seventh grader at Stony Point school, displayed her pencil collection, and Marilyn Stanley, a fifth grader, entertained with a reading, "The Life of Lincoln."

Test Balloon Barrage

Washington, Feb. 13 (AP)—Creation of a balloon barrage unit at Fort Lewis, Washington, to experiment with this type of protection against air raids was announced today by Undersecretary Robert P. Patterson of the war department.

Announcing this step at a press conference, he said that the success of British balloon barrages in forcing German planes to fly at great altitudes prompted it.

Germany's great seaport Wilhelmshaven was built on land from the Grand Duke of Oldenburg in 1853.

Midwest Viewpoint

Giving what he described as the middle west viewpoint, Gov. Harlan J. Bushfield of South Dakota said at Columbus, Ohio:

"The hysteria of war that is sweeping throughout our seaboard cities like an epidemic of uncontrolled smallpox has not touched us."

"We still believe that an invader who is unable to cross twenty miles of water in eight months has no chance of attacking us across 3,000 miles of ocean."

Senator Burton of Ohio, addressing a rally at Pontiac, Mich., said the British aid bill if passed in its present form "might well mean early war."

At Oklahoma City, Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska said most people felt that the "lend-lease" bill required modification and he agreed with them.

"This is a time, however," he added, "when we cannot be quibbling too much about the power of the President. x x x If Hitler conquers England, we will be forcing more power upon the President than he is asking today."

"We are today engaged in war," he declared flatly. "It is, in fact, dishonest for us to be talking of keeping out of war. All of our resources are pledged to the cause of the allies. This does not mean that any of our men will go there, or that any lives will be lost in conflict."

Deaths

Suburban—HERBERT CHAPMAN (Telegraph Special Service) Paw Paw, Feb. 13—Herbert Chapman, aged 54, died suddenly at his home north of Paw Paw at about 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, the result of a heart attack. not proposed by Il Duce, but that the base for an axis assault on Britain's Mediterranean stronghold of Gibraltar.

In London, British circles declared that twin German attacks on Gibraltar and the Suez canal were expected "within the next 30 days" in an attempt to isolate British forces in the Libyan desert campaign in North Africa.

There was no mention of Germany in the announcements of the Mussolini-Franco conversations.

Nazi Force in Rumania

Nearly 600,000 German soldiers were estimated to be concentrated in Rumania, and there were persistent reports that others disguised as civilians had filtered in to little Bulgaria next door—possibly in preparation for a push toward the Mediterranean through Greece and Turkey.

There were reports from well-informed Balkan quarters that Turkish diplomatic circles had instituted a campaign for a united Balkan defense front made up of Bulgaria, Greece, Yugoslavia and Turkey, but the campaign admittedly was begun with little hope of success.

British African troops were reported pushing forward on three fronts in Italian Eritrea toward the port of Massaua, but progress apparently was slow at Cheren, a strongly fortified mountain town in central sector, although the British said they occupied positions controlling an important highway junction at Elgena, which leads to both Massaua and Cheren.

The Italian forces in Albania, the Greeks reported, were digging heavy defenses after calling off a series of costly counter-attacks which were said to have been broken by the Greeks. Bitter fighting was reported in the Devol and Skumbi river valleys.

For Bigger Debt

Washington, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The senate finance committee gave quick approval today to legislation increasing the national debt limit to $65,000,000,000 to meet costs of defense and proposed British aid.

At a brief executive session the committee reported out legislation already approved by the house. This would boost the present debt limit of $45,000,000,000 plus $4,000,000,000 earmarked for national defense, subject all future federal security issues to federal income tax; and give the treasury broad powers to issue securities in small denominations.

Woman to Prison

Vandalia, Ill., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Jennie Hargis, 58, was under sentence of one to 20 years in the prison at Dwight today on a charge of arson in connection with a fire that extensively damaged her restaurant here December 23.

She pleaded guilty in Circuit court here late yesterday a few minutes after the indictment was returned by a Fayette county grand jury. Her plea for probation was denied.

NAMED "ABRAHAM"

Benton, Ill., Feb. 13.—(AP)—He was born on Lincoln's birthday and they called him "Abraham". The new arrival was a buffalo calf born at a zoo owned by Martin Biebel near this city last night.

Mrs. Sharkey is survived by six children, Mrs. Anna Gillan of Cherry; Mrs. Katherine Schultz of Ohio; Mrs. Susie Chandler of East Grove, James of East Grove and Rose and John of Amboy; 37 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren. Three children preceded her in death, Charlotte in infancy, Mrs. Mamie Donovan and William.

Church Societies

Valentine Party — Members of the children's division and Mission band of Grace Evangelical church will be entertained with a Valentine party from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday at the church. Each child will be expected to bring a nickel and a Valentine.

Comrades' Class — Valentines were exchanged and Washington hatchets were favors at last evening's monthly meeting for the Comrades' class of the Dixon Methodist church. Betty Grimes was hostess.

A business session was followed by game of cootie bunco, with Jean Brown and Elaine Fisher winning prizes. Refreshments were served to Mary Emma Goodman, Jean Brown, Audrey Poppa, Marie Scudder, Joyce Wilson, Betty Grimes, Elaine Fisher and the teacher, Georgia Jewett.

Happy Birthday

FEBRUARY 14 Robert Lee Fulmer; Mrs. Anna Hecker, Amboy; Lorraine Hillison of Amboy.

Funerals

ERNEST HERRMANN (Telegraph Special Service) Rochelle, Feb. 13—The funeral of Ernest Herrmann, 47, who passed away in the Lincoln hospital here at 7:15 o'clock Tuesday evening, following an illness of three weeks' duration, will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning at St. Patrick's Catholic church, followed by interment in the Catholic cemetery.

The deceased, who was a farmer in the vicinity of Creston, was born May 22, 1893 in this vicinity, and is survived by his widow, the former Marie Vaughn; two daughters, Delores and Therese; six brothers, Otto, Wilbur, Tony, and Leo of Rochelle and Martin and Peter of Chicago; and his mother, Mrs. Anna Herrmann of Rochelle. A sister, Stella, preceded him in death.

not proposed by Il Duce, but that the base for an axis assault on Britain's Mediterranean stronghold of Gibraltar.

In London, British circles declared that twin German attacks on Gibraltar and the Suez canal were expected "within the next 30 days" in an attempt to isolate British forces in the Libyan desert campaign in North Africa.

There was no mention of Germany in the announcements of the Mussolini-Franco conversations.

Nazi Force in Rumania

Nearly 600,000 German soldiers were estimated to be concentrated in Rumania, and there were persistent reports that others disguised as civilians had filtered in to little Bulgaria next door—possibly in preparation for a push toward the Mediterranean through Greece and Turkey.

There were reports from well-informed Balkan quarters that Turkish diplomatic circles had instituted a campaign for a united Balkan defense front made up of Bulgaria, Greece, Yugoslavia and Turkey, but the campaign admittedly was begun with little hope of success.

British African troops were reported pushing forward on three fronts in Italian Eritrea toward the port of Massaua, but progress apparently was slow at Cheren, a strongly fortified mountain town in central sector, although the British said they occupied positions controlling an important highway junction at Elgena, which leads to both Massaua and Cheren.

The Italian forces in Albania, the Greeks reported, were digging heavy defenses after calling off a series of costly counter-attacks which were said to have been broken by the Greeks. Bitter fighting was reported in the Devol and Skumbi river valleys.

For Bigger Debt

Washington, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The senate finance committee gave quick approval today to legislation increasing the national debt limit to $65,000,000,000 to meet costs of defense and proposed British aid.

At a brief executive session the committee reported out legislation already approved by the house. This would boost the present debt limit of $45,000,000,000 plus $4,000,000,000 earmarked for national defense, subject all future federal security issues to federal income tax; and give the treasury broad powers to issue securities in small denominations.

Woman to Prison

Vandalia, Ill., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Jennie Hargis, 58, was under sentence of one to 20 years in the prison at Dwight today on a charge of arson in connection with a fire that extensively damaged her restaurant here December 23.

She pleaded guilty in Circuit court here late yesterday a few minutes after the indictment was returned by a Fayette county grand jury. Her plea for probation was denied.

NAMED "ABRAHAM"

Benton, Ill., Feb. 13.—(AP)—He was born on Lincoln's birthday and they called him "Abraham". The new arrival was a buffalo calf born at a zoo owned by Martin Biebel near this city last night.

NEW BOOKS
Hold Autumn in Your Hand—Perry
Story of tenant farmers in Texas, who have the fortitude of body and resourcefulness of spirit to enjoy life.
Today and Forever—Buck
Pearl Buck is at her best when she writes of China. These are good short stories.
Not for the Meek—Kaup
A novel of American life during the past fifty years, when fortunes were made and lost.
Book of Indoor Hobbies—Steri
A number of hobbies that can be carried on satisfactorily with a minimum of space and at small expense.
Money-Making Hobbies—Collins
Twelve hobbies that offer the opportunity for making money.
How to Stage a Hobby Show—Sheldon
Complete suggestions for organizing and staging a show with recommended material.

Vitamins—Borsook
A practical handbook, with suggestive diets for children and adults, and warnings against some vitamin extracts. Appendixes include sources of vitamins, daily requirements, contents of common foods, etc.
Ordeal by Hunger—Stewart
In 1846, before the gold rush had beaten out the Western Trail, eighty-seven people—some from Illinois—started for California. The season was late, the route was new, and they became trapped in the Sierras. Only forty-seven of them came out alive, and that after such hardship and want that some of them had eaten human flesh. The misadventure of the Donner party constitutes one of the most amazing stories of the American West.
Introduction of Electrical Engineering—Mueller
Presenting the principles of electric, magnetic, and dielectric currents, with their applications to problems encountered by electrical engineers.
Let's Talk About Your Baby—Tommy
Problems of the baby's first year: food, furniture, clothes, habits; parents, doctors, and diseases.
The First Five Years of Life—Gesell
A guide to the study of the preschool child.
We Call it Human Nature—Grabbe
Photographs, diagrams, cartoons, and a brief but comprehensive text are welded into an easy approach to psychology.
Your Year in the Army—Kenderline
In a friendly fashion, Major Kenderline faces the problems of the raw recruit, and builds an attitude that will be helpful to the new soldier.

The Ali-American Front—Aikman
A realistic, readable, and well-informed appraisal of our neighbors to the south, and what they mean to us in the matter of Western Hemisphere defense.
Europe in the Spring—Boothe
Miss Boothe's picture of Europe as she saw it just before Hitler's drive.
J'Accuse—Simone
One man's account of the inside story of the men who betrayed the French nation.
I Rode With Stonewall—Douglas
The war experiences of the youngest member of Jackson's staff. There are no heroics and unreconstructed-rebel sighs; it is a simple and exciting record of day-by-day events. A thrilling story of the Civil War.
Plans were recently announced for a $14,000,000 plant to be built in Detroit for the manufacture of machine guns and mounts, torpedo tubes and small parts for guns. The plant is to be operated by Hudson.

Farmers' Institute
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13—(AP)—Members of the Illinois Farmers' Institute and Department of Household Science will hold their annual state meeting in LaSalle Feb. 19, 20, and 21. H. O. Allison, secretary of the institute, announced here today.
The program calls for four general sessions and four sessions of special interest to men, running concurrently with a like number of meetings of special interest to women, at which time delegates and visitors of the institute will hear a series of talks on world affairs, agriculture and household science.
Clifton M. Utley, director of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, will discuss "America in a World at War" on the evening of the opening day.

Weekly Food and Marketing Letter by Mrs. Emily M. Lautz for Dixon Telegraph Readers

Did you ever stop to realize that cereal is as typically American as any food we eat. Long before the white man reached these shores, the Indian had his maize. Then came the pioneer woman with her bowl of porridge. But eventually America was to make a new contribution to the world's eating habits, for it was in this country that the first ready-to-eat cereals originated.

Today, these crisp, toasted cereals are a morning "must" in millions of homes. But women, never content to let a good thing alone, started experimenting with these crunchy bits—and what has happened? Cereal cookery—a new kitchen art—has sprung up. And cereal, no longer just a breakfast food, now goes into three meals a day instead of one.

Amazing things can be done with that box of cereal. Take the matter of pie crust. By the time you get out the board and rolling pin and mix the dough, you have spent 15 minutes—plus—at the job. With a cup of fine corn flake crumbs, one-third cup butter, and one-fourth cup sugar you can turn out a crust in 5 minutes. The trick is to melt your butter in the pie pan, add sugar and corn flake crumbs, press mixture evenly and firmly around the sides, and chill well before adding filling.

Corn flakes have other time-saving uses. Two cups of slightly crushed corn flake crumbs, on the coarse side, work miracles with a meat loaf. Bananas, sliced an inch thick, rolled in eggs and finely crumbed corn flakes, and fried in an inch of melted shortening are heavenly with grilled chops. Banana scallops, they are called, and from start to finish take 10 minutes at the most.

Mark down that fish rolled in cereal crumbs and baked is a delicacy long remembered, and that cereal crumbs also produce beautiful golden tops on scalloped vegetables and meat casseroles.

Of course, any flaked cereals can be substituted for corn flakes, and here's where the youngsters get a break! In any grocery store you'll find a wheat flake cereal that's been enriched with Vitamin B-1 and D, so that an average serving supplies youngsters with one-fifth of their daily requirement. This same cereal can be used in the making of cookies. "Peppies," they're called. You make them by blending three-fourths cup shortening and one cup sugar, adding two eggs well beaten, one cup molasses and a cup of vitamin-enriched wheat flakes. Into this mixture sift four cups flour, one teaspoon soda, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon ginger, and one teaspoon cinnamon, alternating with one-half cup sour cream. Chill thoroughly, roll to one-eighth inch thickness, cut and bake about 20 minutes. Result: 2 1/2 dozen of the best cookies you ever tasted, complete with vitamins!

Yes, children need vitamins, and as every mother knows, the thrifty way to get them is in the food that goes on the table. Youngsters, however, have a way of not wanting to eat things. Spinach, for instance! Try putting three and one-half cups of cooked spinach in a casserole and covering it with cheese (8-ounce package) that has been melted in a double boiler with three-fourths cup of milk, salt and pepper. Sprinkle 1 cup of vitamin rich flakes, slightly crushed, over the top and bake about 30 minutes. This, by the way, is Spinach Supreme, and while its vitamin alphabet includes A, G and C, there is no danger of the youngsters not liking it!

All-bran, long known to the breakfast table, is as versatile a cereal as you'd hope to find. It goes into the making of breads, muffins, and cookies; turns ordinary hamburger into something special; adds zest to meat stuffings; and produces all sorts of unusual tasting things. Fortunately it loses none of its laxative qualities in cooking.

Here's an idea for a starter. Mix four cups of peanut butter with a cup of all-bran. Now be prepared for a surprise. You'd think that the bran would turn soggy, but it works just the opposite—gives the peanut butter a crunchy taste and texture. Try this in sandwiches or on crackers!

All-bran has a knack of blending well with other ingredients. Used in a stiff dough containing little liquid, as pastry or cookies, it takes the place of nut meats. In a soft mixture, such as muffins, it is best soaked in the liquid which increases the fluffiness of the texture.

Little need be said about the popularity of bran muffins, but here's a version that is new: Pecan bran muffins. Lest you've forgotten the basic recipe it goes like this: Cream two tablespoons of shortening and one-fourth cup sugar; add one egg and beat well. Stir in a cup of all-bran and three-fourths cup milk and let soak until most of the moisture is taken up. Sift one cup of flour with one-half teaspoon salt and two and one-half teaspoons baking powder. Add one-third cup pecan meats.

Stir into first mixture, blending only until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake about 30 minutes in moderate oven 375 degrees F.

Appetizing Economy For budget-crowders there are few recipes to equal Crown Roast of Weiners. To see it come on the table you never would believe it was nothing more than a dozen short fat weiners arranged vertically around a casserole and filled with a tempting brain stuffing.

This stuffing is made by combining 12 cups of small bread cubes with 1 cup of all-bran, adding a finely chopped onion that has been sautéed in melted shortening and butter. Season with two teaspoons salt, one-half teaspoon pepper, one-half teaspoon poultry seasoning, and bind with one and one-half cups water or stock.

Press this stuffing into the center of the weiners, forming a crown roast effect. Bake about 20 minutes in moderate oven 350 degrees F.

Cereal a breakfast food? Just try it in tempting new ways for dinner, luncheon or supper.

LUNCHEON DISHES Fish Flakes in Cream

Cold fish never is a problem, for fish flakes in cream sauce—generous with butter and seasonings—have many possibilities. Vary the flavor with favorite sauce or with celery salt, minced parsley, or grated onion.

2 1/2 cups cooked fish flakes
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup cream, or cream and fish stock
3 tablespoons parsley
4 tablespoons butter

Place butter, or part butter and shortening in fry pan over low heat. If minced onion is added, simmer in the shortening until light brown. In a bowl combine the other ingredients with cream, adding the flaked, cooked fish last. Pour into the hot shortening and simmer slowly until thoroughly heated and blended. Serve on toast or with baked potatoes.

Pimento Sauce Try this with meat patties, baked fish and baked beans—
1-3 cup green pepper, chopped
3 tablespoons butter
1-4 teaspoon salt

1 cup boiling water
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1-3 cup pimento, chopped
Cook green pepper in water until tender. Mix butter, flour and salt. Add water and green pepper slowly. Cook until thickened. Add pimento last and serve hot.

Fish sandwiches—Canned salmon or canned sardines, freed from bones, or tuna fish, mixed to a paste with salad dressing or with lemon juice. Chopped celery is a good addition.

NEW AIR OFFENSIVE Copenhagen, Denmark (AP)—Denmark is preparing for a new kind of war, and has fixed next spring for its outbreak. Sparrows are the enemy. Some 30 million will survive the winter and he ready to damage crops, reports say, unless they are exterminated.

The peculiar war cry of a queen bee can be heard several yards away from the hive.

"I know why you're callin' me your Valentine, Calvin, —you want another of my CHOCOLATE CHIP CUP CAKES!"

NO WONDER HE'S SO CRAZY ABOUT 'EM THEY'RE MADE THE SPRY FULL FLAVOR WAY!

WHAT A DIFFERENCE!
No "faded flavor" with purer Spry! You get the FULL rich taste of all your ingredients

COMPLIMENTS FLY the minute folks taste these light, delicate cup cakes laden with mouth-melting pieces of chocolate. Dress them up with Valentine frosting, if you want, but they're delicious unfrosted, too. Such tasty, tempting flavor in every tender crumb, for Spry doesn't "dull" flavor as ordinary shortenings may.

Spry's purer, stays fresh longer, creams so easily. Three big extra advantages and only Spry gives all three! Change to Spry today for all your baking and frying.

Purer All-Vegetable Spry TRIPLE-CREAMED FOR EASIER MIXING

Valentine Frosting
1 egg white, unbeaten
1/4 cup sugar
3 tablespoons cold water
1 teaspoon light corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Put egg white, sugar, water and corn syrup in top of double boiler and mix thoroughly. Place over rapidly boiling water and beat constantly with rotary egg beater until mixture will hold a peak (about 7 minutes). Remove from fire. Add vanilla and beat until cool and thick enough to spread. Makes frosting to cover tops of 18 cup cakes.

Full Flavor Chocolate Chip Cup Cakes
1/4 cup Spry
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup sugar
2 eggs, unbeaten
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
Bleed Spry salt and vanilla. Add sugar gradually and cream well. Quickly done. Spry creams so easily. Add eggs, mixing, beating well after each addition. Sift baking powder with flour 3 times. Add flour to creamed mixture, alternating with milk, mixing after each addition until smooth. Add chocolate chips. Bake in Spry-greased cup-cake pans in hot oven (425° F.) 15 minutes. Frost with Valentine Frosting and decorate with cherry halves cut to resemble hearts. Makes 18 cup cakes.

War Today

soil as a base would be necessary for an attack on Gibraltar.

It would be surprising if Hitler made any major attack in the Balkans before the weather improved with the coming of spring. Military operations in that area during winter present fierce obstacles, especially for an army on the offense.

Present indications are that if the Germans threaten the Dardanelles Turkey will fight, unless Moscow intervenes. The Turks have a fairly well-equipped standing army of 2,000,000 and in the past they have been magnificent fighters. What they lack in mechanized equipment and air power would in some degree be made up by British aerial and naval assistance, and perhaps mechanized land divisions.

There is another aspect of the present situation which we mustn't overlook. Many observers believe that Hitler is trying to persuade Japan to make an assault on Britain in the Far East as a companion piece to the big spring drive in Europe.

Apropos of this position the American consulates in Tokyo and Shanghai today again urged American women and children and non-essential men to return to the United States.

American officials in Shanghai said, however, that there had been no material developments for the worse in the situation recently.

Indications have been that Japan would try to avoid being dragged into the axis conflict. President Roosevelt told a press conference in Washington Tuesday that he didn't believe there was danger of the United States becoming involved in war in the Far East.

However, there is sufficient tension in the Orient to warrant Uncle Sam clearing his decks a bit. That is a reasonable precaution though not a threat.

A total of 11 states now have constitutional amendments prohibiting state legislatures from taking taxes collected from motorists and using such funds for non-highway purposes.

There are 31,900,870 motor vehicles in the United States, and 94,248 in the non-contiguous territories, a total of 31,995,118 units or 68.5 per cent of the world total.

The Case of the TALKING CABBAGE

Although this starts like a mystery story, it is based on very plain facts...

Once there were two heads of cabbage. They had "grown up" together from seeds in the soil of the same farm. But at "maturity" their ways parted. One fine summer morning they had been lifted from the soil and sent packing off to market in a truck. And once at the market, in the hub-bub of buying and selling that goes on for farm produce, the two cabbages became separated.

One day, one head of cabbage peered out of an A&P Super Market and spied the other in a show window directly across the street. The cabbage in the A&P window was puzzled at what it saw. There was its farm-mate sporting a price tag several cents higher. (Now, mind you, the A&P cabbage had reason to wrinkle its head in worry: Both cabbages were from the same "family", of the same soil and quality.)

"Why," the A&P cabbage asked itself, "do I get tagged with a lower price?" Then, as though its question had been heard, an A&P vegetable clerk spoke to a customer. "Madam," he said, "A&P makes available these marvelous values in fresh vegetables because it eliminates many unnecessary expenses in bringing them from farms to our stores. Take this cabbage for example," said the clerk, patting the A&P cabbage gently on its head, "we brought it direct from grower to this store."

"M-m-m-m," the customer mused interestedly. "Yes," continued the clerk, "the usual way for cabbage to travel from farm to store is to a broker or commission merchant... who in turn sells it to a jobber... and next the jobber sells it to a retailer... who sells it to consumers."

"It all sounds very complicated," replied the customer. "And so it is," continued the A&P clerk. "Between the farmers and the storekeeper, middlemen have played a part... and they have naturally taken profits, too. And expenses for handling and shipping from farmers to commission merchants... and from commission merchants to jobbers... add to the prices consumers must pay. "But," emphasized the clerk, "A&P streamlines the job of bringing vegetables from farmers to its stores. A&P goes direct to the growers, pays them prevailing market prices... then ships its purchases straight to and through its warehouses and on to its Markets. And what does that mean?" questioned the clerk with a knowing gleam in his eye.

"Just this," replied the customer smartly, "A&P vegetables avoid the unnecessary expense of middlemen's handling charges and profits... and that means I, and thousands of other A&P customers, share in the savings."

The A&P cabbage smiled. Now it knew why its price tag was lower than that of its former farm-mate.

For more than 80 years, A&P has waged a winning war against waste in distributing foods, seeking to eliminate every unnecessary expense that adds to their cost to consumers. It is A&P's constant aim to provide more and better foods for more people for less money.

Foremost of all things A&P has done to lower the prices consumers pay for foods is the development of its Super Markets. These newest of food stores offer you groceries, meat and fish, vegetables and fruits, baked goods and dairy products... all under one big roof. Because they sell so many foods (more than 2000 different items) and sell from five to fifteen times as much as A&P Stores of a few years ago, their storekeeping expense is unusually low. And this means low prices throughout A&P Super Markets every day.* No wonder women everywhere say it's fun to go A&P Super Marketing!

*You gain nothing from "special bargains" when you are charged higher prices for other things to make up for them. At A&P Super Markets you get a low average price on all foods offered. Thus, if you rely on them for all your food needs, you save on your entire grocery bill.

ACES AMONG THE PROPHETS

Leading the Prophetstown cagers to a 57 to 25 victory over Cordova Tuesday night was Mathis, a guard with seven buckets and one free throw for 15 points. The Prophets, you know, are to be the Dixon Dukes' first (but we hope not last) opponents in the coming regional tournament at Sterling in early March. Other high scorers on the Prophetstown team (you better get familiar with their names now) were Brown with nine points, Morris with eight and Sommers with seven.

GAMES HERE TONIGHT

The state hospital employees will meet the Byron independent cagers in the feature game of a twin bill here tonight. In the preliminary tilt the patient all-stars meet the Company A team of Dixon.

MENDOTA MAULS

Hall (or Spring Valley to you) trounced the Mendota cagers, 61 to 34, Tuesday night in a game which almost matches Dixon's routing of the Princeton Tigers on Saturday (61 to 36). It was Hall's 17th win in 19 starts, which should give you some idea of how far the Spring Valley team may go in the forthcoming tournaments. Spender led the Mendota team with a total of 12 points. He attempted 19 field goals and made five and added two free throws. The Mendota boys made 13 of 62 field goals attempted while the winners made 27 of 75.

DUTCH 200 GAMES

Dutch 200 games which are declared to be as rare as 300 games in bowling—although not as tough to make—were counted last night by three kegglers of the Classic League: J. McCordie, Shawger and Shuck.

FOR YOUR TOURNAMENT DOPE SHEET

If you're working out the winners and the losers for the tournaments which begin soon, you might be interested in the standings of the Little Ten conference as of February 11. Earlville was leading with nine wins and no defeats. Waterman has won seven of eight games. Plano six of nine. Shabbona five of eight. Hincley four of eight. Sandwich three of seven. Somonauk also three of seven. Paw Paw two of six. Serena two of eight and Leland and Rollo each have won one of eight.

HIGH KEGLERS

In the revised averages of the Commercial bowling league which will be put into play tonight—Cy Winebrenner of Reynolds Wire is the top kegglers with an average of 177. Other high bowlers of the circuit are: Brabson of the Round-Up with 176, Poole of Sparky's Fenders with 175 and Shultz of the Dixon Telegraph with 171.

FRANKLIN GROVE VOLLEY BALL

It may sound a little screwy, but—on Monday Sunday won two and lost one. A translation of that means that the volley ball team managed by Mr. Sunday won two games and lost one in the Franklin Grove league on Monday night. In other matches the Henry team won one and lost two, Willard won one and lost two, Johnson won two and lost one. Gehrt won one and lost two and Shultz won two and lost one. The Willard team still holds the lead with nine victories and three losses while the Henry and Johnson teams are tied for second with eight wins and four defeats each. Others in the order of their standings are: Sunday, Shultz and Gehrt. Next Monday night the tournament will be played starting at 7 o'clock with the Sunday team vs. Willard, Henry vs. Johnson and Gehrt vs. Shultz. Another round in games of planned after the tournament.

NEW PREMIE

Freddie Parker of Rockford, who is well known in Dixon and who has officiated many cage and grid games here, was elected president of the Rockford chapter of the Winnebago County Sportsman's club at its regular meeting this week. Fred will be active in preparing for the mid-winter banquet which is an event to be held Monday, March 3.

BAG TIMBER WOLF

The Amboy News reports that Vernon Whitver shot a female timber wolf Sunday morning southeast of Amboy near the Turner school. Hunting in company with his father, J. E. Whitver, and George Wilson, Vernon shot the wolf after the three had tracked her for between three and four miles. The wolf, weighing 35 pounds, is believed by the hunters to have been the mate of the male wolf shot several weeks ago in the same vicinity by Bill Brady and a party of Amboy hunters.

KINDA SHAKEY, FELLOWS?

Tonight the league-leading Round-Up kegglers meet the second-place Sparky's Fenders for honors in the Commercial league. Only two games separate the two teams, giving the Campbell crew a chance to tie or lead the circuit. Last night, around 5:30 or so, one of the Fender fellows reports he walked into the Dixon Recreation and there, lo and behold, the Round-Up team—to a man—was getting in some practice shots. The leaders seem to be taking it pretty seriously and aren't so sure of the outcome.

Pairings Are Announced for County Grade School Tournament at Amboy

Around about 10 o'clock on the night of February 22 a new grade school basketball champion of Lee county will be crowned. The annual event gets underway next Wednesday night in the high school gymnasium where Lee Center and Steward will meet in the opening game starting at 6:30. Complete tournament pairings were announced today.

The tourney is sponsored by the Lee County Schoolmasters' club and is under the supervision of Superintendent Robert A. Reinbold of Amboy. Glen O'Bourne of Ashton and LaVerne Edwards of Franklin Grove who composed the athletic committee of the Lee County Grade School Tournament Association.

Paul Potts of Dixon is to be one of the officials of the games and the Amboy grade school head under the direction of Charles Guilford will play each evening. Large crowds are expected to attend the events which have been growing in popularity each year. Dixon schools will not participate in the tournament this year for the first time.

BEIER'S KEGLERS WIN SERIES FROM LEAGUE LEADERS

Sunkist Piemen Hold to Second Place in The Classic Circuit

The Beiers' doughboys threw a monkey wrench into the machine last night as they defeated the Williams DeSoto leaders of the Wednesday night bowling league in all three games. The DeSoto crew, however, held on to its lead of the circuit with two games more than the second-place Sunkist Pies. In pacing the Beiers' team Breeding rolled a 582 series while Wolfe's 513 was tops for the losers.

Potter's team was the second outfit to win three games as the cleaners took the Schlitz boys into camp. Dockery rolled 526 for the winners and Gorman led the losers with 468.

Dixon Machine Works won two games from the Hi-Way Grill lads. A 502 series by Bollman led the winners while Schuck rolled 499 for the grill team.

Tied for Fourth

I. N. U., tied for fourth in the circuit, won two games from Jay's Tavern as Van Doren counted 480 for the utilities and Beane rolled 551 for the losers.

Keeley's Beer won two games from Coca Cola as Rowland scored a 458 for the winners and Hahn chalked up 510 for the Coca Cola lads.

Plowman's team, won in third place, won two games from Welly's Pontiacs with Hoyle scoring 533 for the grocery team and Burbrick counting 526 for the losers.

Knacks took two games from the United Cigar. A 578 series by Smith was high for the evening as he marked up that count for the winners. Bremer rolled 545 for the losers.

No records were broken last night; high games included those of Smith 205; Shawger 200; Hoyle 211; Bubrick 233; Beane 231; Van Doren 220; Oster 217; Shuck 200; Daschbach 209; Dockery 203; Poole 204; Beier 213; J. McCordie 200; Dusing 208; Breeding 203.

Wildcats, Hawks Win in Carriers' Games Last Night

Score-keeper Clyde Taylor and Official Earl Slagle, Jr. were kept plenty busy at South Central school gym last night as they worked the two basketball games of the Dixon Telegraph Carriers' league.

In the opening tilt the Hawks routed the Eagles, 43 to 13, with Tommy Love chalking up 23 points for the winners with 11 field goals and one charity shot. Leading the losers was Huffman with seven tallies. The winners rang up 17 points in the final canto.

In the nightcap game the Wildcats thumped the Bears, 49 to 37. John Herrington took the evening's honors with 36 points as he made 16 field goals and four free throws for the Wildcats. Leading the losers was Trainer with 13 points.

HOPPE STEPS OUT TO CLINCH SHARE IN SECOND STRAIGHT BILLIARD CROWN TONIGHT

Chicago, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Willie Hoppe steps out to clinch a share of a second consecutive world title in the three cushion billiard field tonight.

And those who saw him uncornc another of his customary rallies last night to overcome Allen Hall, believe that he will retain his crown.

His opponent will be Jay Bozeman, the young Vallejo, Calif., who saw his own championship chances jolted last night when he lost to Jake Schaefer, runner-up to Hoppe last year.

It was Welker Cochran, who convinced the cue public Tuesday night that Hoppe could be beaten. However, Hoppe demonstrated last night that being subjected to two defeats in a row was something else again.

He came from behind a 12-point disadvantage just as he did against Joe Ciampico in an earlier match and won, 50 to 48 in 56 innings.

Schaefer gained undisputed possession of second place and remained in the thick of the title fight by disposing of Jay Bozeman of Vallejo, Calif., in 59 innings, 50 to 40.

Hoppe and Schaefer wind up against each other tomorrow night.

NOTRE DAME NARROWS DOWN FIELD OF COACH CANDIDATES

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Notre Dame was a step nearer the hiring of a new athletic director and head football coach today.

The faculty board in control of athletics, after spending three sessions discussing successors to Elmer Layden, finally narrowed the field last night to "several names" which were submitted today to the Rev. Hugh O'Donnell, Notre Dame president.

Neither the number nor the identity of those under consideration was disclosed, but officials expected that Father O'Donnell might be in position to announce the new chief within a week.

Layden resigned to become commissioner of the National Pro Football League.

McGrew Predicts Pee Wee Reese Is Slated for Honors

Miami, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Scout Ted McGrew of the Brooklyn Dodgers, while hacking his way out of an alligator nest with a sand wedge, declared:

"If nothing happens to Pee Wee Reese he is going to be the greatest all-around ball player I ever saw, and I don't except Ty Cobb or Hans Wagner or anybody else."

"'Dad blast it,' he continued, as his ball slipped and disappeared deeper into the swamp. 'Dad blast it this kid has everything. He's as fast as Cobb ever was and he has a better arm, and give him a ball up around his shoulders and he'll knock it out of sight. Furthermore, he's one of the nicest kids I ever came into baseball.'"

Reese is the fragile-looking little shortstop who played sparkling ball for the Dodgers until he smashed an ankle last season. He says the ankle is all right again, but he's still wearing a leather brace. That's probably what McGrew meant when he said "if nothing happens to him."

Proceedings Against
Bridges Start Mar. 31

Washington, Feb. 13.—(AP)—A public hearing in the justice department's deportation proceedings against Harry Bridges, west coast CIO leader, will begin at San Francisco March 31. Attorney General Jackson said today.

Bridges, born in Australia, repeatedly has denied he was a Communist or affiliated with any organization advocating overthrow of the government by force or violence. Various congressmen have advocated his deportation on such grounds.

Jackson said the government's case against Bridges would be based upon a report prepared by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, containing "new and additional evidence".

LaGrange School Near
Woosung Burns Down

(Telegraph Special Service)
Polo, Feb. 13.—The LaGrange school, near Woosung, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Wednesday evening, only a few books being saved by neighbors who were summoned by Harold Tonis, who discovered the fire at about 7 o'clock, and who also called the Polo fire department. The school, taught by Mrs. Warren Johnson of Polo, had an enrollment of nine pupils.

No Evidence Game
Laws Are Violated
Director Declares

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Livingston E. Osborne, state director of conservation, has said in a statement that investigators had found "no evidence" of widespread game law violations as recently charged by a delegation of legislators who protested to Osborne against dismissal of 147 game wardens.

"Investigators have been looking into a number of complaints which have been filed with the department and found practically all of them without foundation," Osborne said.

Osborne dismissed the 147 game wardens, appointees of former Democratic administrations, soon after he took office last month. A delegation of Democratic legislators, asking that the wardens be reinstated, claimed that ducks and other game were being taken out of season because of a lack of protection.

The director's statement said investigators found 3,000 ducks on Lake Decatur, 2,000 geese on Crane lake and 10,000 ducks on the Mississippi near Alton—unusual numbers for this season—but that no shooting of the birds was observed.

Osborne said, however, that his department had received reports of numerous ill or dead ducks being found in the state and asked sportsmen to send the bodies of such birds to the state game farm in Springfield so that the cause of their death may be determined. Conservationists believe lead poisoning to be the cause of many of the deaths, Osborne said.

Special Election on School Bonds in Rochelle 25th

(Telegraph Special Service)

Rochelle, Feb. 13.—In response to a petition signed by more than 300 legal voters of school district No. 212, the board of education of the Rochelle township high school at its regular monthly meeting held Monday evening voted unanimously to call a special election on February 25 at which the following propositions will be voted upon:

1. To authorize the Board of Education to build an addition to the present building.
2. To authorize the Board of Education to issue bonds of the district to the amount of $125,000 bearing interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum.

While the bonds are being voted to bear a 3 per cent interest rate, they will no doubt bear a lower rate. If a majority of the voters favor the bond issue, the bonds will be sold to the individual or firm offering to buy them at the lowest interest rate. They cannot legally bear more than 3 per cent interest, but they can and probably will bear less than 3 per cent.

Notices have been posted stating that the election will be held at the Rochelle City Hall between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 7 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, February 25. The Board of Education will make every effort to get out a big vote for this election so as to ascertain the real feeling of the electors toward these important questions.
